

Interpreting a Jewish Funeral

An explanation of the rituals and service of a Jewish funeral and an examination of the meanings of the prayers and blessings used.

August 6, 2018
4 PM to 7 PM EDT

Streamed on zoom.us

Registrants will receive a log-in code a few days before the workshop.

$45

Registration deadline August 1

50% refund for cancellation after the deadline

Contact: Karen Beth Staller, kbstaller@gmail.com

DHCC is approved by the RID CMP to sponsor continuing education activities. This program is offered for .3 CEUs per session in Professional Studies. Participants should have little or no knowledge of the topic and be working interpreters with advanced sign language skills who are interested in helping alleviate the difficulty in finding a last-minute interpreter for Jewish funerals in their community. Presented in spoken English if all attendees are hearing.

Physical or virtual attendance at workshops held by Karen Beth Staller is open to anyone, regardless of race, color, religion (creed), gender, gender expression, age, national origin (ancestry), disability, marital status, sexual orientation, or hearing status. It is expected that all participants demonstrate tolerance for others' background and opinions and bullying, as perceived by the presenter, will not be tolerated.

Registering for

Interpreting a Jewish Funeral

Register via the following electronic means:

Paypal

Venmo

ApplePay

kbstaller@gmail.com

dskbs91

2155182328 or send a personal check for $40 made out to Karen Staller to:

Karen Staller

PO Box 63364

Philadelphia, PA 19114

Regardless of payment method, please be sure to note your name and email address and any accommodations needed.